Horrible Slaughter of Chinamen near Chico, Cal.

CHICO, March 15.—A correspondent telegraphs: This morning we visited the scene of a terrible butchery which was reported to have taken place at the Chris Lemm ranch, about a mile and a half from town, last evening at 9:30 o'clock. The location or the scene of this most brutal and terrible butchery is about one mile up the Humboldt road, at the left side, and about 300 yards from the residence of Mr. John H. Williams. It is reached by a panel gate in the fence next the road, and is only distant from the road about 250 yards, across a field of wheat belonging to Mr. Lemm. Six Chinese were employed in grubbing and clearing a piece of land adjoining this field by contract, and were congratulating themselves that two or three days more would finish their contract and they would get their pay. Mr. Lemm informs us that they were diligent, good-working Chinamen and had made a good job of the work they had on hand. There had been no quarrelling among them, the utmost harmony prevailing, and no one entertained an idea that enemies were after them. They had built a small cabin for temporary use, and in that they lived. The six Chinamen were in the cabin in the evening, some lying down, while the others were sitting around a lighted candle which was on a small table, and it is thought that this aided the murderers in their work of assassination. On our arrival on the ground we went up to the cabin, where the ghastly sight which presented itself to our gaze was almost appalling. On the ground at the entrance there lay a stalwart Chinaman on his face with a bullet wound in his head, and blood and brains formed a pool around him. The second lay about a foot from him, nearly in the same condition, while the third lay partially over the second, also wounded in the head. The fourth was lying in an opposite direction to the other three, with his face partially upon the matting or bed, and with a terrible wound in his face, which showed that his murderer had been very close to him. He was still alive, but unconscious, at the time we saw him, but he died during the time the inquest was being held. The fifth Chinaman was wounded in the breast, but managed to escape to the other side of the slough, where we found him in a dying condition. He was brought to town, but there is little chance of his recovery. The sixth Chinaman was wounded in the arm—a flesh wound—and he says that at the time they aimed at him he threw up his left arm and fell back, lying perfectly still. The murderers, thinking they had completed their work of slaughter, poured kerosene over the place and applied a match, hoping to obliterate their deed. After setting fire they hastily made their escape, but the wounded man, who had laid perfectly still, arose after their departure and put out the flames. He hastened to town, but nothing was done until this morning. It appears that the assassins were six in number, and as the Chinamen described them, there were five Mexican men and one boy or little man. They came right up to the cabin door, and without any warning blazed away, each one of them picking out his victim, which could be easily done, as the candle on the inside showed their position. There is no clue to the perpetrators of this terrible outrage, and the verdict of the Coroner's jury is that the Chinamen came to their death by pistol-shot wounds, inflicted by six white men to the jury unknown. No active steps have been taken to ferret out the crimes which have been committed in and around Chico during the last three weeks, and murder and bloodshed, incendiarism and rapine are allowed to run rampant. Since the Order of Caucasians was started in Chico all these depredations have taken place. We have talked to several of their prominent men, and they all deny that their organization sanctions such lawlessness, and say they are willing to assist in ferreting out the perpetrators. The citizens are becoming alarmed, and there is no telling where this thing will end if speedy relief is not obtained. Haying and harvesting will soon be upon us, and every ranch where anything in the shape of a Chinaman is employed is in danger of the incendiary's torch. The Chinamen belonged to the Nin Yung Company. They are now lying at the morgue and will be buried tomorrow. The citizens are going to raise a purse of $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the assassins, and a call will be made upon the Governor to offer a like reward. A general feeling of sympathy is growing in favor of the Chinese.

DR. G. R. HUTCHINSON,

—DENTIST—

Patience Ceases.

We have all along counseled patience, and non-interference with the laws, upon the part of our citizens. We have believed the laws amply sufficient to protect life and property, but it seems to us that events of late have done much to prove our utter helplessness. Men are stopped in all quarters of the town as soon as darkness comes to aid the foot-pat. Men are drugged and robbed in the heart of our town. Valises are stolen, and nightly rows and brawls serve to make our streets unsafe after nightfall. Drunken Indians continue the uproar when the white villains are at rest. Fires which are undoubtedly the work of incendiaries destroy the property of good citizens, and altogether Reno is gaining a name which is odious to every law abiding man. All of these offenses originate with one class, viz: the vagrants and hoodlums, who come forth at night from the various dens and brothels, where the mischief is planned. There will one day be a summary correction of these evils. We have already feared it, and would wish that it may be avoided, but we fear the righteous indignation of this community. There are villains among us who are sure to meet with punishment, and we warn them to move, lest their punishment come from anger which is often unreasoning, and is now influencing our citizens to mob law. We shall always deprecate such a course, but we have seen how easily a shouldering heat may break out into flame, how, unfortunately, popular suspicion may hang men without trial and dismantle the dens of iniquity. Forewarned is forearmed.

Wife Beater.

Virginia City furnishes a case of full fledged brutality, of which the Enterprise says:

We would call Mike Kelly a brute, only that justice would require us to apologize to the first of the species we afterward met. Brutes may be cruel, but they are neither malignant nor devilish, and Mike Kelly is both. About 8 o'clock last evening his little daughter came sobbing into Judge Moses' Court-room and begged the officers to run to her father's house, as he was killing her mother. They followed her, weeping as she ran and led the way to Washington street, and there they beheld what would make Satan himself ashamed of his imp on the earth. The woman was in the last stages of pregnancy, and the husband and father had beaten and kicked her till she had fallen, fainting and helpless. Not content with this, he had then set upon and beaten a Mrs. Delaney, who had attempted to dissuade him from his deeds of violence. He was immediately taken into custody by Deputy Constable Riordan, conducted to the court-room, and required to give bail in the sum of $500 for appearance for trial at such time as the condition of his wife would allow her to testify. The woman is in a very precarious state.

A man who becomes so depraved and brutal that he will commit such an act as above described, should not alone be dealt with by the law in receiving the full benefit provided by Stewart's wife-beating bill, but the women of the neighborhood should treat him to a heavy dose of pillory.

TRUCKEE LUMBER COMPANY.—Deacon P. of the Tribune has been in Truckee and says:

The Truckee Lumber Company's works are well worth a visit, and we advise all Carsonites who stroll away into the altitudinous regions of our next door State to call upon Mr. Jas. Ward and request his permission to visit the works. The whole premises occupy an immense area, and the amount of doors, windows, scroll and other carpenters' work done there is perfectly surprising. A number of boys that might otherwise be hoodlums about town, are there employed, and Mr. Ward informs us that first class mechanics are there made of boys that otherwise would be useless members of society. It is a vast arrangement, and requires a visit to properly appreciate it. The company has an immense stock of doors, windows, blinds and other building material on hand, and send the same to all parts of Nevada, Utah and to towns along the line of the Central Pacific railroad.

The suit against the California Mining Company for fifty feet of ground, etc., will be brought to a hearing in the United States Circuit Court at Carson next Wednesday.

Why are grayhounds the most thoughtful of animals? Because they are thin-cured.

CATHOLIC DISABILITIES IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The voters of New Hampshire at the recent election refused to strike the word "Protestant" from their Bill of Rights, and the Roman Catholics will continue to be ineligible to the highest offices in the State.

Such a law is unjust, and contrary to the spirit and letter of the Constitution of the United States. No man in this country should be precluded from holding office on account of his religious views, any more than he should be for his political opinions. A Protestant may have as strong bias as a Catholic, but a man who could receive the nomination for the highest State office would be presumed to be one who is worthy of it, and whose intelligence and principle would not allow matters of State to be unduly influenced by his religious convictions.

Secretary Schurz has notified all the heads of the Interior Department that during his administration of its affairs there will be no removals of clerks or other employees except for cause, and no promotion except for merit. It will therefore be useless for persons to file papers soliciting clerical appointments or promotion on merely personal or political grounds; and in addition to this it can be stated that there are at present no vacancies to be filled.

The new Post-Master-General has done the same thing, so applicants can go home and attend to their own business until called on. Hayes and his cabinet are united on the policy of civil service reform. The people back them.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Peter B. Sweeney, associate with Boss Tweed has arrived in New York. He is a party to the $6,000,000 suit.

Professor S. C. Bartlett of Chicago has accepted the Presidency of Dartmouth College.

An Aiken (S. C.) dispatch of yesterday says: Three colored men were hanged here to-day for the murder of two white men. Stephen Anderson, also colored, was found guilty of the same crime, but yesterday was respited for 30 days by Governor Hampton.

Stephen S. Jones, editor of the Religio-Philosophical Journal at Chicago, was shot dead in his office last Thursday afternoon by W. C. Pike. Both are spiritualists.

A Columbus (O.) dispatch gives the following in regard to the Senatorial contest in that State: The Republican Joint Committee on Thursday nominated Stanley Matthews for United States Senator vice Sherman, on the third ballot, amid tremendous applause. Howland, Taft, Shellbarger and Lawrence were candidates for nomination. Forty-three votes were necessary to nominate. Taft's highest vote was twelve, Howland's thirty, Shellbarger's eight. Matthews has accepted the nomination, and his opponents for the nomination have joined in congratulation.

A New Orleans special says: There is an indication that the settlement of the Louisiana question will be reached through stormy issues. A secret meeting of the white members of the Packard Legislature Thursday night, adopted resolutions pledging the Republican party of the State, that if necessary Packard's Government would be supported by force of arms. Positive assurance has been given to Packard, that 5,000 armed men were ready in New Orleans to be given to his service whenever he wanted them. There is no doubt that Packard's adherents are desperate, and seeing no hope from Government bayonets, intend to make a bold stand in their own behalf. New Orleans is likely to be the scene of exciting events within the next few days. At the Packard meeting Thursday night every man present signed a pledge to uphold the Packard Government by force and to begin at once enlisting the Republicans of the State to a similar pledge.

Albany, March 16.—The Governor has sent to the Senate the name of Gen. George B. McClellan for Superintendent of Public Works.

The nominations of Frederick W. Seward and J. N. Tyner have been confirmed by the Senate.

The United States Senate adjourns to-day. Several party Republicans are growing discouraged over Packard's prospects and urge the President not to withdraw troops from Louisiana, as such withdrawal would ensure a Republican defeat at the next election.

FOREIGN.

A St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs: Although the war party is still confident, I am semi-officially informed that a peaceful solution is scarcely doubtful. The only question between Russia and England now is whether Russia or Turkey shall disarm first.

Elliott will very shortly resume his duties as Ambassador from Great Britain to Constantinople, and it is probable that Elliott's return will be followed by that of the Ambassadors of the other great powers.

General Ignatieff will go to England on invitation of Lord Salisbury, who has asked him to visit his country residence. The object of Ignatieff's journey is to second Count Schouvaloff's efforts to arrive at an understanding. The differences now are merely verbal, and it seems impossible that efforts for an understanding could miscarry after having reached this point.

Great agitation prevails in Constantinople. The recall of Midhat Pasha and war with Russia seem to be dominant among the confused demands of the populace. Grave complications are apprehended.

Switzerland has invited Germany, France, Austria, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Roumania to a conference to consider means of preventing the ravages of the phylloxera.

HOUSE-CLEANING.—The editor of the Eureka Sentinel is a married man and therefore qualified to speak of the annual cleaning fit which attacks every housekeeper when Spring has fairly opened. Hear him:

The annual house-cleaning season is near at hand, and the head of the family already has a pensive cast of countenance as he ponders over the miseries attendant on this event. Cold dinners and a cross spouse are among the minor afflictions, while disjoined stovepipes, and carpets to be taken up and shaken, fill his cup of sorrow to the brim.

BASE BALL.—Base ball is all the rage among the young men of Truckee at the present time. The plaza makes a splendid ball ground.—Republican.

We would enjoy a little base ball exercise ourselves. Reno could furnish two nines and scare up lots of fun.

SUPERIOR IRON HARROW.—I have a harrow which I offer to the public, which I think excels anything in the harrow line I have ever seen. It is made entire of the best Norway wrought iron, except the points of the teeth, which are tipped with four inches of the best steel. My harrow will cover grain or grass seed, being made to run deep into the ground or pass lightly over it. Another superiority which I claim for it, is that it has no dead motion like wooden harrows; when passing over the ground it has a swinging motion, which very much increases its efficiency. On the upper side are two bows or runners on which the harrow may glide smoothly along when it is being removed from one field to another. Any size desired promptly made to order. W. LUKE, Maker. LOCAL AFFAIRS.

FISHING PARTY.—Yesterday several ladies and gentlemen took a box of sardines or minnows, for bait, and went fishing. The party hauled about one ton of lunch out of town, and brought home several fish—stories. One lady made a mistake and fished in an irrigation ditch for some time. Another had a looking-glass along, and so didn't fish much, while the other three tied their lines to willows, and sat on a fence discussing the relative beauties of Cardinal red, seal brown and navy blue. One of the gentlemen staid at the wagon to watch the lunch, while the other was found asleep on the river bank, with a gunny sack tied to the end of his pole hanging loosely in the water, and a fly dancing the Fisher's hornpipe on his nose. The party returned to town, and the man who watched the lunch says he got more bites than anybody.

A LOATHSOME SIGHT.—Two Piute squaws were brought into town on the 10:30 train from Carson, and both were in a beastly state of intoxication. One lay prone upon the top of a car, and the other was in a box car. The miserable creatures were carried from the train by members of the tribe and lain upon the platform of Earl's depot, where they were surrounded by a crowd of hangers-on. The sight was offensive in the last degree, and caused much indignation at ruffians of the Quinlan sort, who would, for a paltry profit, and with shameless motives, inflict such misery. The poor victims lay there groaning and raving, with torn clothes, aching bodies and crazed minds, a sad commentary upon the laws, and the respect held for them. Can't this evil be checked?

SENTENCED.—F. Schultz, who was tried yesterday for cruelly beating his daughter, was this morning sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs or go to jail for 30 days. The costs will swell the bill to $60, and Schultz has given notice of an appeal. After this light sentence had been delivered the tender hearted father was exceeding impudent to Justice Richardson, whereupon the magistrate promised him 30 days more unless he changed the tone of his remarks. Schultz was sent to jail, and has declared his intention of not paying a cent. He says that if he is obliged to remain in jail, at the expiration of the term he will leave and allow the county to take care of his children. We hope he will execute his unmanly threat for the sake of the children.

DISGRACEFUL.—Last evening we saw two drunken squaws down in the dust in the middle of the street fiercely fighting. They had succeeded in tearing much of their clothing off of each other, and were making good headway with their hair. Several Indians and a number of white men were interested spectators to the disgraceful and brutal affair. Such scenes should never occur in our town. The iniquitous practice of selling whisky to Indians should be severely checked. It is not an uncommon sight to see several drunken Indian men and women on our streets. The vile vendors of liquor to Indians will have to keep very sly or they will meet with a little justice which may not prove conducive to their longevity.

CONDEMNED.—Attorney Cossit in his defense of Schultz the tailor yesterday, saw fit to rail at the Gazette for expressing an opinion upon the subject. Mr. Cossit's condemnation can hardly be regarded as final, but we acknowledge that our notions in regard to beating women are rather firmly set, and it is highly probable that the next man who finds it pleasant to curse and kick his daughter, will find a glowing account of his manly virtues in these columns.

Clear Havana Cigars, two for 25 cents, at E. Meyer's New Cigar Store.

LONG VALLEY.—Through F. Lemmon of Peavine we learn that the soil of Long Valley and vicinity is becoming very dry and unless another storm enues the crops will be very short. The ranchers in that vicinity depend upon the winter storms to swell their water supply and this is as yet insufficient. Mr. Lemmon, however, has few fears but that the supply will be increased by a late storm. So note it be.

None but the best brands of Smoking and Chewing Tobacco kept at E. Meyer's New Cigar Store.

Settling.

Tyrell & Reese, of Virginia, sent their agent down last night to inspect our wants in the iron bridge line. They will probably bid.

Mackey & Fair will probably begin to run wood down their flume about April 1st.

James Maberry has been delivering large quantities of wood at the Mackey & Fair flume during the last month. Mr. Maberry has large contracts, and the present fine weather is very favorable to their fulfillment.

Jim Holbrook of Wadsworth was in town yesterday.

There will be a week's vacation in the Public Schools, commencing March 30.

Messrs. Church and Jones give their farewell party in Carson tonight. Tickets one dollar.

Fred Schultz was at work to-day on the streets pro bono publico; but his attorney, Mr. Cossett, has taken an appeal of his client's case to the District Court. Schultz's bonds are $300. He had better paid fine and costs of suit.

Mr. C. W. Conner is in town looking for and making inquiries about one J. R. Hughes who was last seen in Reno sometime last November. Mr. Hughes was a druggist in Jacksonville, Ill., and came to this State in company with his brother-in-law last Fall, since which time the latter gentleman has not heard from the missing druggist.

The music last night was furnished by Case & Co. and was very good.

Virginia street is now about as clean as the Gazette office.

The mills of the P. W. L. & F. Co. will not start up before May 1st.

The festive fly is beginning to deliver his annual temperance lectures from the printer's nose.

An emigrant inquired to-day if the Nevadaites used sagebrush tops for greens. It is supposed he was playing a deep game to get some verdant man to set up the cauliflower, lettuce, celery, etc., etc.

Messrs. Sheets & Co. have received from San Francisco a number of fine samples of carpets. They will furnish you a carpet corresponding to any chosen sample at San Francisco prices. See their ad. elsewhere.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—Last night a few minutes before 12 o'clock Mr. J. W. Denning, who was returning home from St. Patrick's Ball, and when within a stone's throw from his house, narrowly escaped being deprived of all monies in his possession. Mr. D. had received the tickets and some money which were given in at the Ball. He was watched at the hall and afterwards followed by two men on his way home. When within a hundred yards of his residence one of the scoundrels tripped him and he fell to the ground. Quickly rising he hollered and made good time to his domicile in the Western addition. Both of the would-be robbers thought it was no go and suddenly made themselves scarce. Denning armed himself and started in search of the two scamps. Unfortunately, however, they could not be found. Again a strong man and one who could do his would-be patrons justice was not ready for them. Gentlemen, take along you "gun" and do a charitable act for the community.

ST. PATRICK'S BALL.—Last evening there was a merry, whole-souled party of ladies and gentlemen at the Reno Opera House. The ball was given in honor of St. Patrick, but the occasion was so thoroughly enjoyable that we don't believe Saint Patrick was thought of. The hall was tastefully decorated the harp of Erin being displayed upon a beautiful flag of emerald green, and the Stars and Stripes were also raised over the pleasant assemblage. There were about 60 couples upon the floor, and the management was a success. Everybody was determined to enjoy himself, and we did not see a man who failed. The managers may congratulate themselves upon a perfect success, and we give notice that if that's the way they do, we want St. Patrick's day to come twice a year.

LIBRARY MEETING.—A meeting of the Reno Library Club is called for next Monday evening at the Library rooms. Every person interested in the cause of books should attend as a permanent reorganization is to be attempted.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a little son of Mr. Hoffman met with a severe accident. He had some powder in a can which he wished to set fire to. To-day he was doing as well as could be expected, but will be confined to his room for some time.

He now asks a continuance of past favors at the Saddle Rock and promises to deserve them more than ever. Old patrons only need to know the location while new comers are referred to the Saddle Rock for trial. Any man who is not satisfied will go free of charge. Pat points with pride to the number of fat men now roaming our streets, and confesses that his famous Eastern oysters and made dinners have done the work. Call at the Saddle Rock and you may be assured of good treatment and the best which the market affords.

BACKBONE.—We hear a great deal about backbone of late. A politician who changes his views or acts in accordance with changed circumstances, is accused of a want of spinal rigidity. Those who once had a personal spite against another are expected to keep it, or in default they will be charged with having no backbone. When the cool headed statesman at Washington advised a compromise and the appointment of an Electoral Commission, the cry of a want of backbone went up. When Hayes announced that he should regard himself as President of the country instead of a party, the backbone cry was again heard. If a party pursues a policy for years and the best results are not accomplished, those who attempt a change are denounced as wanting backbone. The cry, as a rule, comes from the most impracticable and least progressive. Their advice during the past three months has not been followed, and the result to the country is much more satisfactory than it would have been had their suggestions been carried out. Too much backbone to be governed by circumstances is not advisable.—Nevada, Cal., Transcript.

THE CATTLE BUSINESS.—W. P. Watts, the gentlemanly and obliging agent of the railroad company here, has furnished us with the following statement, taken from the books of the number and value of beef cattle shipped from this station during the winter:

The shipping season began in September, 1876, since which time the total number of car-loads shipped to date is 635, which at $100 freight per car, makes the cost of carriage alone $63,500. The average number of cattle per car is 18, making the total number shipped 11,430. The average value per head, as estimated here, was $35, making the total value of the cattle shipped $285,750. Prices have ranged unusually low during this winter and ordinarily the cattle shipped would have averaged $30 per head here.—Silver State, Feb. 16th.

Not long ago, as an elderly couple were out walking, a lady on the opposite side of the street tripped and fell down. The old gentleman rushed across the street and offered to assist her in any possible way. His wife followed him across at a slow pace and witnessing his devotion to the stranger, she got mad and shook her fist at him. "It's all right—it's all right," he whispered.
